Convocation

Once your purchase order was received, we will send you an official convocation, with appropriate joining instructions.

For live online trainings, each attendee will receive, during the week before the training, all information needed to attend the training session, with a personalized copy of the training material (in PDF format) and, if needed, connection data to access the online PC used for practical exercises.

Payment terms

Our trainings are to be payed 30 days after the invoice date; invoices are emitted at the end of the training. A signed attendance sheet is joined to the invoice.

Each trainee will receive an individual certificate of completion and a personalized PDF version of the course material.
